No, we will not be publishing your abstract. If you pull out after the abstracts book has been printed, you will still not be given a copy of the book.

09. *Will the full papers of the abstracts be published as proceedings?

All the presenters who presented at the ICH 2016 will be invited to send their full papers after the conference and only selected papers will be published as proceedings at ICH 2017. Selection will be based on blind peer review.

10. *I am a presenter from overseas. How do I find my accommodation when I attend the conference?

The official hotel for the conference is Hotel Royal Grand Paradise. This hotel has offered us a very competitive rate of Rs. 4500 per night (approximately US$ 30). This rate includes a comfortable single bedroom and breakfast. Please contact the hotel directly for your reservations but make sure you mention in your communications that you are a guest of the University of Kelaniya and are coming for the ICH conference.

11. *Is it mandatory to present my paper using MS Powerpoint?

No. It is not mandatory that all the presenters should use MS Powerpoint to present your paper. Alternatively, you can read off your paper or use any other means of presenting your paper. If you need any other form of technical support, please let us know in advance.

12. *When can I get to know the time and date I will be presenting?

You will be informed as soon as the conference programme is online. Please note that dates and times cannot be changed as accommodating all the presentations is an extremely complex task and making one change will mean making adjustments in the entire programme. We appreciate your cooperation in this regard.
