

Max Rahrig M.A.

Curriculum Vitae

Contact

University of Bamberg
Centre for Heritage Conservation
Studies and Technologies – KDWT
Am Zwinger 6
D-96047 Bamberg
Germany

Tel.: +49 951 863 1620

Mail: max.rahrig(at)uni-bamberg.de

Personal data

Date of birth: Mai 5th, 1986
Place of birth: Höxter / Germany
Nationality: German

Education

- Studies at Otto-Friedrich University of Bamberg, Germany
- Master's degree (M.A.) in mediaeval and modern archaeology, preservation science and building archaeology.

Relevant work experience

- Since 2008 specialised in high resolution 3D documentation of cultural heritage sites, with projects in almost whole of Europe as well as Sri Lanka, Egypt, Macedonia, Turkey, and the United Arab Emirates.
- 2011 – 2012 Freelance cooperation in various archaeological excavations
- Since 2013 lecturing assignment on the subject of 3D scanning techniques in the areas of architecture and preservation science at the University of Bamberg.
- 2014 – 2015 Research Assistant at University of Bamberg, Dept.: Preservation Science.
- Since 2016 Research Assistant for 3D- and ndt-applications at the Centre for Heritage Conservation Studies and Technologies (KDWT) at Bamberg University.